

Secrets	Explains	Examples
English fluency is not in your mouth	English fluency actually starts in your head: Now as an english learner, you probably have studied english for a long time. Which means you have also experienced frustration(why am i not able to speak like a native english speaker?	1 - To speak English like a native you need to think like a native. 2- You need to learn how to organize your thoughts and ideas in your mind before you speak. 3- Native English speakers are taught in school how to properly organize their thoughts and ideas
Book English won't help you speak real English	I was only focusing on Korean books, not paying attention to real conversations. I had my books ready, had them open, and I was memorizing Korean vocabulary words, memorizing expressions, memorizing grammar rules, but I still sounded awkward.	1- One reason many English learners don't become fluent is that they only focus on English books. 2- Only focusing on English books will make you sound awkward when you try to speak english. 3-Learning english from real situations will actually make you sound more natural.
English Conversations have a special flow	An english conversation is like a tennis match I love this secret because I enjoy showing it visually think about a tennis match. You have a ball and the tennis racket and the person you're playing with your opponent also has a tennis racket. You throw the ball up and hit the ball to the opponent	1- If you understand the proper flow, you will be able to go back and forth smoothly. 2- Following the right conversation flow will help you connect with your listener 3-Understanding and following the flow will also help you sound more like a native english speaker

Secrets	Explains	Examples
The number 3 is powerful!	you see using three points three reasons or three details this is key to speaking english fluently whenever you are talking to someone, whenever you're having a conversation back and forth, when you give your idea or your thought you need to support	1- this number 3 is one of the most important keys to speaking english like a native speaker. 2-giving three points three reasons or three details will provide the information you need to speak fluently 3- Native english speakers are taught the power and importance of the number 3 in school too
confidence comes before fluency	When you gain confidence, when, what you're learning from your English courses. And started to believe in yourself and your fluency improved, so you must remember these things. remember that have confidence in yourself because that confidence will lead to fluency	1- you need to develop confidence in your own abilities if you want to achieve english fluency 2- the more confident you are, the more natural your english will sound 3-In order to gain more confidence in your abilities, you must step out of your comfort zone